Shapes and Colours

Two fun and resistant flip flap books for toddlers, rooted in Montessori pedagogy.

They are great to learn the concepts of colours and shapes. Toddlers can mix and match, learn, identify and name the 12 colours – yellow, red, blue, orange, green, purple, pink, brown, beige, grey, black and white – and 6 shapes – circle, square, triangle, parallelogram, hexagon and octagon. A must have in any baby's bookcase.

Animals Around the World

One book was not enough to display all our favorite furred, feather and scaled friends... so here they are: even more animals, still in a giant format!

Just as Animals – Marcel et Joachim's best-seller by the wonderful designer Ingela P Arrhenius – this new volume will for sure become a star in every kid's bedroom: 32 new animals, 32 pages that are just as many posters we would hang up on our walls!

Animals: Over 100,000 copies sold in 9 languages.

My First Encyclopedia

More than 200 words illustrated for toddlers from 1 year old

In this new giant board book, each spread is dedicated to a new fundamental theme: It's cold, It's warm, Up in the air, In the water, It stings, It's soft, It's noisy, It smells good, It smells bad, Let's party!, Home Sweet Home.

My House

A poetic pop-up book

*My house does not look like much.
On the street, it is not the stadiest, nor the nicest, nor the most quiet.
There is a field of wheat on ground level, monkeys and musicians upstairs, sand dunes and paper birds in the attic, and even a lighthouse on the roof...*

Séverine Vidal and Adèle Day

Age 4+
Pop-up
300 x 200 mm
18 pages

A fancy pop-up house full of surprises, dreams and creativity, where everything becomes possible.

Do You Think...?

Do you think that animals can understand us? When do you think people start being old? What do you think Santa Claus does during the 364 other days of a year?

In life, there are so many questions to ask, for which everybody has a different answer. Here is a selection of them, to learn a bit more about your kids, parents or even yourself. This book is meant to be read with the whole family, from 4 years old and beyond. 35 funny, ludicrous and sometimes even philosophical questions to get into a discussion on serious topics filled with fun and laughs!
