MY BABY'S DAY

Soledad Bravi

From breakfast to bedtime, the key moments of a baby's day illustrated with simplicity and mischief by Soledad Bravi.

Don't be fooled by the simplicity of this book: in Soledad Bravi's world, magic hides in the details. The iron guardrail that takes us immediately to a stylish Parisian flat, the hairy dad who gave his hairy genes to his offspring, the loving and faithful dog who lives his day at the pace of the baby and really enjoys being pampered, even since the baby's birth.

This is everyday life, but not the next-door one!

A book that will quickly become a must-have for young parents, as essential as baby bottles.

MIMI and MOMO

Charlotte Colmet Daâge & Odile Ferraille

A funny short story to play with words and sounds, with a cute surprise in the end! A perfect first bedtime story for toddlers.

This is Momo. And this is Mimi. Momo loves Mimi. But Mimi doesn't love Momo very much. Momo has a friend. Mumu. Momo and Mumu love each other a lot. But Mimi doesn't like Mumu. And Mumu doesn't like Mimi, as Mumu doesn't like anyone who doesn't like his friend Momo.

When Momo disappears, Mimi and Mumu will chase Momo together... When they finally find Momo, Momo is not alone anymore! Momo introduces Minimo to Mimi and Mumu. Momo has a mini-me. Momo is a mummy. Really?

ENCYCLOMINI WHEELS SERIES

Ingela P Arrhenius

It's soft! An apricot,
a teddy bear, a kiss,
marshmallows, a lamb,
and... a hedgehog?
In this new series of board books for little ones, we play with wheels to find the intruder! Each wheel shows several items...
are they soft or prickly?
Do they smell good or bad? Are they scary?
Spin the wheel and have fun!

Inspired by their big sister, our bestseller
"My first Encyclopedia"
by Ingela P Arrhenius,
each book of this series' theme is a duo of opposites : good or stinky, soft or prickly, funny or scary, noisy or silent... Besides learning elementary concepts, kids will interact during the reading, be surprised by what they discover and give their own opinion on the subject.

THE NEWCOMER

Charly Delwart & Delphine Perret

Who is this newly-arrived creature in the house?
It does strange things.
It has its own logic and rituals.
The narrator observes it with precision and astonishment, without judgement.

An original text that evokes the strangeness of a being in its first months of life, and marvelously restores the communication without words which built between the baby and his/her parents.

Children will enjoy the fun of this creature that may remind them of a little brother or a little cousin.

Adults will rediscover their emotions and, through Charly Delwart's memories, will revive their own. Beware of nostalgia!

THE PERFECT SHOT

Céline Dumartin

Jean-Pierre travels the world in his motorhome, in search of the perfect photo to snap. On his way, he photographs everything he sees: a sunset, but the background turns out blurry; a friend, but his face turns out funny; a bee, but his hand is covering the lens...

An 80's camera look-alike picture book full of humour, with a deceptively naive and childish line, punctuated by Céline Dumartin's pop and colourful illustrations.
